

Hello all,

Yesterday, I think I wrote that we were in week 12 of quarantine, but after a recount, I think it might be "only" week 11.

While my math might not be MIT worthy, my spirituality is up to speed. The sermon I preached on Sunday morning is echoed in this article from Patheos magazine.

UBUNTU SPIRITUALITY

Abide in me as I abide in you. (John 15:4)

https://www.patheos.com/blogs/livingaholyadventure/2020/05/faith-in-a-time-of-pandemic-ubuntu-spirituality/?utm_medium=social&utm_source=share_bar&utm_campaign=share_bar_facebook

When we abide in each other, we are always connected to one another and to God. Rest in that connectedness. Trust in those connections - they are strong and worthy and good.

From the end of the article a prayer for today:

Loving God, thank you for your love that flows in and through me. Remind me that we are all in this together and that out of our abundance we can reach out to one another. Amen.

Blessings today and every day,
Jenni