

A lecture and workshop on ...

The Salvific Power of Beauty for Spirituality, Ecology and Justice

With Patricia Adams Farmer

In partnership with Madawaska Institute for Religion and Culture

Kitchissippi United Church
630 Island Park Drive
Ottawa, ON K1B 0B9

Lecture on Friday, April 21 at 7:30pm

Workshops on Saturday, April 22
9:30am to 4pm

Sermon at Kitchissippi United Church
(with discussion)
Sunday, April 23 at 10am

COST
$10.00 (Friday lecture only)
$125.00 (for the weekend)
$15.00 extra for lunch

To Register
Email george@hermanson.ca or mail to 140 Fleming Burnstown,
ON K0J 1G0
Phone: 613 432 8852

*Patricia Adams Farmer is an ordained minister in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), a process theologian, author, and featured writer for the website Jesus, Jazz, and Buddhism. Her works include two books of narrative theology, embracing a Beautiful God (2003) and Fat Soul:
A Philosophy of S-I-Z-E (2016)
<https://patriciaadamsfarmer.com>*

Drawing from wisdom of philosophers, theologians, poets and trees this lecture and workshops will explore the variegated landscape of beauty and discover how it can offer a creative center for spiritual life, worship, planetary wellbeing and social justice.

“Once we awaken to the Beauty which is God.”