This Sunday’s guest

This Sunday we welcome Rev. Matt Gallinger, Chaplain of the Carlington Chaplaincy.

Matt joined the Chaplaincy in August 2017. Matt has spent most of his working life so far as an ordained minister in the United Church of Canada. He has worked in several different communities in the Ottawa area for the last 16 years, and is currently working in a half time position at Merrickville United Church.

During his time in the United Church, he has been involved in a wide variety of interfaith work, from formal committees to one on one conversations. He is committed to the view that all faiths are equally able to help us to be in touch with the wonder of our world, and the value of our fellow human beings.

He also had the privilege of working as an Interfaith Spiritual Advisor at South Carleton High School in the Ottawa Carleton District School Board. He was a resource for faculty and students on a wide variety of religious subjects, and provided counselling to both staff and students. He also worked to provide a faith perspective within the school setting, and deepened his commitment to interfaith work.

Project of Heart

During coffee hour on Sunday, October 20th, Kitchissippi UC's Project of Heart will be holding a letter-writing campaign in support of the First Nations Family Caring Society and their work towards justice and equity for Indigenous children and their families. All are invited to take part in this activity; information and materials will be provided.

On Monday, October 28th at 6pm, you are invited to an evening of learning and creativity for Kitchissippi UC's Project of Heart. Project of Heart is a national intergenerational program to recognize the legacy of Indian Residential Schools in Canada and remember the children who were part of the residential school system. Join us in the Kitchissippi UC's hall for a collaborative research session followed by a potluck and an artistic reflection on our learnings. If you are able, please bring a savoury dish for the potluck and a laptop computer or iPad/tablet (extra devices will be available.) Families are welcome!

Eco Christianity

AN INVITATION! Please join us for a visit to the Humanics Institute (Ottawa-Orleans) on Saturday October 26, 2019. Everyone is welcome. We will meet at KUC at 9:30 a.m. then will carpool together. For more information-speak to any member of the Ecological-Christianity Circle or use the below website link: www.Humanicsinstitute.org/Sanctuary/

New this Fall!

The Film Study will happen every 4th Sunday of the month (Oct 27, and Nov 24), following worship & coffee hour. It will be in the KUC Chapel. Everyone is welcome; we will have a short film viewing followed by conversation, led by Rev.

The Poetry Club will meet every 2nd Sunday of the month (Nov 10), following worship & coffee hour. Discussion, led by Charlie Scromeda will take place in the KUC Boardroom.

Chaplaincy Fundraiser

The annual Chaplaincy Fundraising Dinner is now set for Saturday, November 9th hosted by the Calvin Christian Reformed Church on Merivale Rd. Tickets are $60 and available from Norah Patriquin or Dave Hall. As usual if you cannot attend but would like to support the Chaplaincy's work, you can buy a ticket for one of our Carlington community volunteers.

Norah Patriquin and Dave Hall are looking for donations of goods, services and talents for the Silent Auction, items valued at $30 or more for the Chaplaincy dinner. Less valuable items would be sold at the Gift Table. Anyone interested should e-mail Dave Hall David Hall davidfhall@magma.ca with details of the donation, with a description and an estimate of the value.

Camp Kallala

KUC Fun!

"Hello, my name is Arnold" "Funny you should mention, so is mine!"

At the Men's Breakfast this week, the topic was Crokinole, with three boards in action and lots of laughter. Charlie, our Faith Formation leader, lost a hard fought match with Clayton, who has been playing for 75 years or so. The folks who hadn't played for 70 years were pretty good, too!
