This week's poem is WHERE THERE'S A WALL BY Joy Kogawa

where there's a wall
there's a way
around, over, or through there's a gate
maybe a ladder
a door
a sentinel who sometimes sleeps
there are secret passwords you can overhear
there are methods of torture for extracting clues to maps of underground passageways there are zeppelins
helicopters, rockets, bombs bettering rams
armies with trumpets
whose all at once blast shatters the foundations

where there's a wall
there are words
to whisper by a loose brick wailing prayers to utter special codes to tap
birds to carry messages taped to their feet
there are letters to be written novels even

on this side of the wall I am standing staring at the top lost in the clouds I hear every sound you make but cannot see you

I incline in the wrong direction a voice cries faint as in a dream from the belly
of the wall
