

Hello all,

I hope you had a great weekend. Steve Clifton, Elizabeth Brice and I had fun leading the Holy Humour Sunday service together. It was fun to see and hear the children's and youth's voices and jokes!

Thank you to those who wrote to say that they appreciated my reflection on my 'too soon plucked' garlic bulb. More to come - my lilac tree is in full bud at the moment!

The Book Study is changing to a Broadview Reading Group for an unknown period of time (for now, for sure!) and as such, maybe more accessible for those who wish to join us! We will meet via Zoom on Tuesdays from 1-3. There is always a time of check-in at the beginning to find out how everyone is, then we will talk about the articles and we end with a prayer.

We are reading these three articles for discussion on Tuesday, April 21st:
These two are from the March issue of Broadview: <https://broadview.org/living-school-richard-rohr/> and <https://broadview.org/john-dominic-crossan-interview/>
This one is from the April issue: <https://broadview.org/mary-magdalene-easter-story/>

If you'd like more information, please write to me at jleslie@kitchissippiuc.com.

Blessings, all, and I hope you are being gentle with yourself,
Jenni
