MESSAGE FROM REV. JENNI

Good very cold morning to you!

I love the sunshine! I love the sunshine! I love the sunshine! (They say we must focus on the things we love/bring us joy and not dwell on the things that cause skin to freeze, so here we are.) Around this time of year, I start thinking of renting a summer cottage to get myself thinking of something in the future that is exciting. Last year, we cottaged near two different family friends and it was a lot of fun. I'm hopeful for the same next year. What are your summer plans? What are you looking forward to?

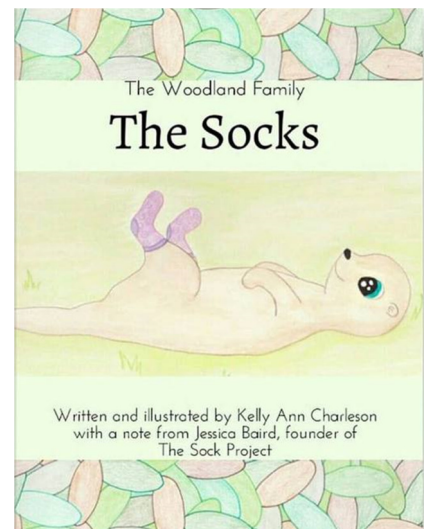

By the time you read this, I will have had a meeting with Jessica Baird, the founder of The Sock Project, whom we will welcome next Sunday, January 30th. I look forward to hearing her story.

Read more about Jessica here: <https://broadview.org/the-sock-project-jessica-baird/> and here: <https://broadview.org/acts-of-kindness/>

I am also looking forward to having a dialogue sermon with Andrea Prazmowski on Sunday February 13th. She will be talking to us about The Work that Reconnects: <https://workthatreconnects.org/spiral/> I've experienced a few workshops and I highly recommend it.

The Creative worship working group meets on Tuesday at 10am by zoom. We will be discussing Lent and Easter worship themes and possibilities. If you have some ideas for worship or some feedback about what you haven't liked, please plan to attend!

I hope you have some time for yourself this weekend to recharge safely. I have to tell you that I have been walking with a friend in the woods behind the Nepean Sportsplex a couple of times a week since the fall and it has been so nice to watch the woods and trails change from summer to fall to winter. It has also helped my mental health and Roxy's physical health (oh, mine too!).

Blessings all,
Jenni
