A MESSAGE FROM REV. JENNI

Good Friday to you!

Wasn't it exciting to wake up to newly fallen snow? (Please read with sarcasm!)

As several of us mentioned last Sunday, the world is in chaos and as humans we are sometimes expected to take it all in without batting an eye. We can't. All of it is too much. Take in a little at a time. Remind yourself that God rested after doing a lot of creating and it is important that we do as well. When Jesus was overwhelmed, he would go into a boat and go to the middle of the lake to be alone. There was a lot of chaos in Jesus' day too. Lean on your faith in times of overwhelm. Remind yourself who you are (beloved) and to whom you belong (God). We are called to let our light shine so that we may light the path for others, but also so that those who are experiencing chaos, hard times.

Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness grows up to trouble you, corrupting many.

– Hebrews 12: 15

FUNDRAISER FOR TERESA CRAIG's FAMILY AND FUNERAL

Hi, my name is Sylvia Smith. As many of you know, recently we tragically lost our beloved friend Teresa Craig. She leaves behind her son Martyn, daughter-in-law Jessica, and grandson Niyko. There is a baby granddaughter due in May as well. We are asking for financial support for this young family at this time so they can pay for funeral expenses, as well as get ready for the newest member of their family, who is arriving in the spring.
