Good day folks!

I hope that the children in your life and the young at heart had a lovely and safe Halloween last night!

It has been another busy week, navigating various important issues in the church. Know that you can reach me by email anytime, I'd be happy to have a coffee with you or chat by phone.

You will have heard Denise share an announcement on Sunday about the potential for our Hall to be used as a Warming Centre by the City of Ottawa. That has not been finalized yet as we figure out what is possible and not possible. Stay tuned for more information on Sunday.

I meet with folks who want to become members of the church and this week, we are welcoming 12 people - 2 by transfer of membership. There will be more opportunities to become a member over the next several weeks.

If you'd like to experience a Rainbow Worship, Renfrew style, a group of us are going this Sunday evening to Trinity St. Andrew's United Church, where I've been asked to lead worship and communion. All are welcome!

Next week, your Worship Circle meets on Monday morning. Anyone is welcome to join, it will be in person at 9:30am in the boardroom.

Book Study continues on Wednesday morning 10-12 and UCW also meets on Wednesday at 1pm in the hall. Here is a short video with the author, Brian McLaren to learn a bit more about the book: https://youtu.be/J\_ElyRTpuKY

There will be a monthly Queer Potluck on Wednesday November 13th. This is an opportunity for God's Beloved Coffee time folks to meet and get to know other 2SLGBTQ+ folks and so invite your friends and family who are members of that group. Bring a dish to share. 5- 7pm in the hall.

The Creative Worship Working Group is meeting to talk about Advent/Christmas/Epiphany on Thursday November 14th at 9:30am in the Boardroom and on zoom.

Please be sure to sign up for the Photo Directory picture taking days: November 14, 15 and 16th. This is free of charge to get your photo taken - you will get a church directory and the opportunity to buy prints, but no obligation.

Blessings on your weekend,
Jenni

If you'd like to experience a Rainbow Worship, Renfrew style, a group of us are going this Sunday evening to Trinity St. Andrew's United Church, where I've been asked to lead worship and communion. All are welcome!

Next week, your Worship Circle meets on Monday morning. Anyone is welcome to join, it will be in person at 9:30am in the boardroom.

Book Study continues on Wednesday morning 10-12 and UCW also meets on Wednesday at 1pm in the hall. Here is a short video with the author, Brian McLaren to learn a bit more about the book: https://youtu.be/J\_ElyRTpuKY

There will be a monthly Queer Potluck on Wednesday November 13th. This is an opportunity for God's Beloved Coffee time folks to meet and get to know other 2SLGBTQ+ folks and so invite your friends and family who are members of that group. Bring a dish to share. 5- 7pm in the hall.

The Creative Worship Working Group is meeting to talk about Advent/Christmas/Epiphany on Thursday November 14th at 9:30am in the Boardroom and on zoom.

Please be sure to sign up for the Photo Directory picture taking days: November 14, 15 and 16th. This is free of charge to get your photo taken - you will get a church directory and the opportunity to buy prints, but no obligation.

Blessings on your weekend,
Jenni
